WE SUPPORT PROGRAMS AND RESOURCES FOR BEREAVED CHILDREN AND FAMILIES

Since 2008, childhood bereavement support has been a philanthropic priority for the Foundation. In 2023, 1 in 12 U.S. children experienced the death of a parent or sibling before the age of 18, a consistent increase over the past 2 years. We continued to address the growing need for increased resources for bereaved youth and their families through dedicated initiatives and partnerships.

WE HELP MIDDLE SCHOOL STUDENTS THRIVE IN SCHOOL AND IN LIFE

We supported our education partners to enhance their out-of-school time programs to provide more academic and social and emotional learning resources for middle school youth. Out-of-school time programs—afterschool and summer learning programs—are essential to a young person's development and help children accelerate their growth and learning.

NEW YORK LIFE WORKFORCE GETS TO WORK IN THE COMMUNITY

Our employees and agents demonstrated their commitment to giving back to the communities they serve. Their generosity extended beyond financial contributions, as they volunteered to support a wide range of community causes. By participating in over 2,300 volunteer activities and Acts of Kindness totaling over 200,000 volunteer hours, they made a significant impact on the lives of others.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

$3,684,500

WE SUPPORT SOCIAL JUSTICE PROGRAMS AND INITIATIVES

In 2023, the New York Life Foundation continued to support social justice-focused programs and organizations through a series of initiatives, including:

- Building generational wealth
- Uncovering and learning from our history
- Continuing to provide general operating support for social justice organizations
